

A Halloween Letter

from the

Switch Witch

Dear Little Ghouls and Goblins,

I'm the Switch Witch, and I love Halloween almost as much as I love a good trade!

While you're out trick-or-treating and collecting your yummy candy, I'll be working my magic overnight!

When you go to bed, if you leave your candy out for me, I'll take it back to my witchy friends and leave you a small toy instead.

It's my way of spreading a little Halloween magic—and making sure you have room for more fun and memories!

Sweet dreams, little ones!
I can't wait to visit you!

Your friend,

The Switch Witch
